Springtime is a great time to explore in the woods and meadows, learn about the sanctuary wildlife, and examine life in the pool and under the microscope. Capen Hill Nature Sanctuary is a beautiful 72-acre wildlife refuge tucked into the heart of Charlton, MA. Some of the activities during the week will include pond life, bird watching, arts and crafts, science experiments, learning about fossils, caring and learning about the sanctuary resident animals and much more. Campers should bring a snack and a lunch and dress appropriately for hiking and cool weather. Please call 508-248-5516 for more details and registration information. Space is limited.
