Old Home Day is an event held in Charlton on Labor Day weekend. Established in 1897, this event brings friends, neighbors, family, and visitors together with a true community spirit. It is a tradition begun over one hundred years ago when the citizens of Charlton gathered before the beginning of the fall harvest and the onset of winter.

The essence of Old Home Day consists of traditions that remind us that we are a part of a community. It offers a chance for folks to join and reflect on the important things required to be a citizen here in a small town in Massachusetts. This day celebrates the town, the people, and the past: it's so much fun!

The entertainment and many of the activities vary from year to year but are free of charge. It is a day filled with exciting entertainment, traditional events, friendship, and fun for the residents of Charlton, neighboring towns, extended families, acquaintances, and anyone who wants to know what Charlton is really about!
